Enjoy the power and beauty of your youth. Oh, never mind, you will not understand the power and beauty of your youth until they've faded. But trust me, in 20 years, you'll look back at pictures of yourself and recall in a way you can't grasp how much possibility lay before you and how fabulous you really looked. You are not as far as you imagine. Don't worry about the future. Or worry, but know that worrying is as effective as trying to solve an algebraic equation by chewing bubble gum. The real troubles in your life are going to be things that never crossed your mind, the kind that blindsides you at 4 a.m., or some little Tuesday. One tiny thing every day will scare you. Stop. Don't be reckless with other people's hearts. Don't get up with people who are reckless with yours. Please. Don't waste your time on jealousy. Sometimes you're ahead, sometimes you're behind. The race is long and, in the end, it's only with yourself. Remember, congratulations you deserve. Forget the insults. If you wanted to do this, tell me now. Keep your wild heart hidden. Those crazy, wild bank statements. Stretch. Don't feel guilty about what you want to do with your life. Some of the most interesting 40-year-olds I know still don't. Get plenty of exercise. Be kind to your body. You'll need them when they're gone. Maybe you'll marry, maybe you won't. Maybe you'll have 10 kids, maybe you won't. Maybe you'll divorce at 40, maybe you'll dance the turkey chicken on your 70th wedding anniversary. Whatever you do, don't compromise yourself too much, or break yourself within. Your choices are half-chosen. So are everybody else's.
